On the occasion of Remembrance and Honor Day, Dehkanabad Potash Plant organized a “Meeting of Three Generations” and educational sessions under the slogan “Human dignity is great, memory is sacred,” with the participation of the company’s employees and labor veterans.

During the event, the veterans shared their rich life experiences, professional activities, and memories of devotion to the Motherland, delivering valuable lessons and inspiration to the younger generation.

Held in a warm and sincere atmosphere, the meeting contributed to strengthening spiritual ties between generations, expressing deep respect for the older generation, and widely promoting the values of memory and honor.
